Well, I just wanted to thank you
For what you gave to me
And if you only knew
How much it means to me
Because can't you see that

I can't pretend to know
All the reasons why you let go
I love having her around
So thank you for my favourite hand-me-down

I take her everywhere
Even if I don't have to
It goes to show how much I care
She's in everything that I do
And baby can't you see that

I can't pretend to know
All the reasons why you let go
I love having her around
So thank you for my favourite hand-me-down

She's like the sweetness you find at the bottom of every cup
The lonely desperate smile that always brings you up

So I end this letter
That I'm writing to you
I know that you'll read it never
'Cause it's just a game that we do
And baby can't you see that

I can't pretend to know
All the reasons why you let go
I love having her around
So thank you for my favourite hand-me-down

My favourite hand-me-down
My favourite hand-me-down
My favourite hand-me-down
My favourite hand-me-down

Well, I just wanted to thank you...
